Short deescription of the organization	The Cooperacja Foundation was born out of the friendship and shared passions of its founders, combining their knowledge and experiences. Founded on 14.11.2019, our work is based on trust, mutual support and the pursuit of integration. We believe in the power of education and culture as key tools for integration and intercultural understanding. Our main goal is to create an open and inclusive society in which every person, regardless of their background, has the opportunity to find their place and to grow.

Vision

We envision a world where socio-cultural integration and education are major forces shaping global communities. As the Cooperative Foundation, we aspire to be a leader in creating such a world. We continually work to build bridges between diverse cultures and communities. Our goal is to create a community where education and culture become universal tools to connect people and nations.

Mission

Our mission is to build bridges between diverse communities through education, culture and support. We focus on integrating people with migrant and refugee experience, promoting social and cultural diversity, and social and civic activism. We work both locally and internationally, creating networks that strengthen our work.

Objectives

1. community integration - to promote the integration of people from diverse backgrounds, especially those with migrant and refugee experience and from rural areas, into local and international communities.
2. Access to culture and education - to provide broad access to cultural and educational resources, with an emphasis on promoting diversity and intercultural understanding.
3. promotion of diversity and tolerance - working to build a more open and tolerant society, with respect for different cultures and traditions.
4. Social and civic activism - supporting social and civic participation across groups, with an emphasis on democratic values and participation.
5. Supporting mental health and well-being - focusing on promoting mental health and well-being, especially among children and young people, through educational initiatives and support.
6. Developing international collaborations - building and maintaining international partnerships and networks that support the foundation's goals and expand its global impact.

How do we achieve our goals?

Our activities are based on engagement and collaboration. Central to us is the organisation of workshops, language courses and integration projects that support the integration and adaptation of people with migrant experience. We undertake cultural and historical initiatives that highlight the importance of local traditions and heritage. We engage people from different age groups and communities in community and democratic activities, encouraging active participation in community life. We offer psychological and educational support for children and young people, and we maintain and develop partnerships with both local and international actors, thereby strengthening our work and increasing our impact.

Our motto

"We open minds, we abolish borders." This motto reflects our belief in the possibility of broadening horizons and breaking down cultural, geographical, political and social barriers through our actions. It is our inspiration and guide in every endeavour, motivating us to constantly strive to build a more open and inclusive world.

What are the activities and experience of the organisation in the areas relevant for this application?	We are a young organisation but our team is experienced in developing many local and international projects. Our latest activity was concentrated on our local society, especially people in danger of social exclusion, as well as NEET youth. Our aim was to introduce the culture to them and bring it closer, out of museums and other formal institutions. All those activities were taken in order to promote inclusion using different, creative methods. Our team is extremely motivated to work and wills to involve people in getting as much as possible from international cooperation and from it have a real impact at local level. Our experience gives us some background of the reality faced nowadays in the community, but more than that we believe this cooperation can give us more ideas and strategies to face the problems from different and creative approaches. In the local community in Leszno, as well as in different places in Europe, there is the need to constant adapt to the labour reality, being constant updated and developing. This is a crucial point our foundation works with. We are very focused on developing creativity and creative ways of doing the old things (keeping the traditions and the background which is important) better. By that we mean, investing in personal development of people as well as in the society itself, by developing it through different ideas and methods. Foundation Cooperacja's team consists mostly of young, educated and creative specialists in international relations, involved and motivated to promote active participation and constant personal development. The foundation has an experienced team in mobility projects such as youth exchanges, EVS, seminars and training courses (in topics such as creativity, healthy lifestyle, leadership, cultural exchange, environment and civil protection, social communication, human rights, etc).
What are the skills and expertise of key staff/persons involved in this application?	Our Foundation is composed of two permanent members, with different background experiences. The President is a very experienced person in the field of non-formal education, working for many years as a local animator and project developer. Our vice-president professionally works in public administration, but also has a big knowledge about non-governmental environments. Both of them speak English fluently and have well developed management skills. All our members and people involved in the foundation have extensive professional experience in international environment, conflict resolution and monitoring projects. Monika Pawlak – President of Fundacja Cooperacja – graduate of the department of sociology on direction Social Work and of the Department of the Educational College to directions adult education and Gerontology of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań.
